

Zultys Receives Unified Communications[®] Magazine's 2008 Product of the Year Award

MX250 IP PBX Recognized for Outstanding Innovation

Sunnyvale, CA, March 17, 2009 — Zultys, the premier developer and manufacturer of pure SIP-based Unified Communication solutions for businesses and enterprises, today announced that the company has been recognized with the 2008 Product of the Year Award from Unified Communications magazine (Technology Marketing Corporation--TMC[®]) for innovations to its family of advanced IP PBX products (such as the MX250 and MX30) and Unified Communications solutions.

"It's very gratifying to be recognized by Unified Communications magazine with the 2008 Product of the Year Award for the difference we're making in the global Unified Communication Marketplace," said Steve Rothenberg, CEO of Zultys. "We've seen a warm reception by the market to the innovations we've made to our all-in-one IP PBX products, and the new features and capabilities we've been introducing that make it easier than ever to deploy and maintain organization-wide UC services that really impact a company's bottom line. We're continuing the momentum with our upcoming Release 5.0 with features such as "Find Me, Follow Me," and MXconnect[™] -the ability to make any phone, anywhere, your personal business phone, and much more."

"Zultys has proven they are committed to quality and excellence while addressing real needs in the marketplace. Unified Communications is pleased to grant a 2008 Product of the Year Award to their MX250 IP PBX and the innovations in their Release 4.0 series of enhancements," said Rich Tehrani, TMC President and Editor-in-Chief of Unified Communications magazine. "We're pleased to honor their hard work and accomplishments, and look forward to more innovative solutions from Zultys in the future."

A full list of Product of the Year winners will be published in the March/April, 2009 issue of Unified Communications magazine, www.uc-mag.com.
